INDIANA A ND OHIO CEMETERIES

Most of the cemeteries listed on the following pages in Dearborn, Ohio, Ripley and Swizerland Counties in Indiana, were visited and recorded in the years 1973-1976 by:
Mrs. Roberts Ehrgott of Ridgway, Pa. and
Mrs. Martha Williams of Reelsville, Ind.

We also recorded many of the stones in Cummingsville Weslyan Cemetery in Hamilton County, Ohio.

From our personal files, Family Bible and Cemetery deeds we have added those names which we know are buried there although the stones are now gone.

The readings in the following cemeteries are just partial listings:

DEARBORN COUNTY:
Bainum, Buffington, East Fork Stone Chapel, Forest Hill, Greendale (Lawrenceburg), Hogan Hill, Mt. Sinai, Wilmington, Wright's Corner, York Ridge.

Ripley County:
Franklin Bap., Methodist (Holton), Pipe Creek, Prattsburg, St. Paul's M.E. (Sunman), Tanglewood, Thomas Family.

Ohio County - Rising Sun

Swotzerland - Vevay

ST PAUL'S M.E. CHURCH & OLD CEMETERY

This church is located south of Sunman, Ind. on #101. The old cemetery is behind the church and the new one across the road. Rev. Benjamin Ferris,wife, Martha Taylor and her brother Milton Taylor, children of Sarah Elizabeth Moore Taylor, donated land and lumber to build the first log church at this site. Milton's son, Franklin at age 16-17 helped clear land and build the church. Rev. Ferris served for over 25 years as pastor here. Sarah is buried on Lot # 1 and many of her descendants are buried here.

==========

All the names recorded at St. Paul's on these pages are related to the Taylor and Ferris Families. My maternal grandfather was the Franklin Ferris Taylor buried here. My cousin and I have done research on Taylor family for over 12 years and have the Taylor family history back to 1602 in Wales.
